Margot Rooker – Michael Rooker's wife

Margot is Michael Rooker's wife. He became popylar for his Yondu character in the franchise 'Guardians of-the Galaxy'. She also had acted a lot in theater plays. Both are parents to beautiful looking daughters. Presently, she is busy donning the housewife's role, motivating her daughters to pursue their dreams. Margot Tsuru LaRose is her full name. She was raised in New Jersey, US. If rumors are to be believed, she was a chef and her birth date is is still a mystery.

Four decades of marital life

He is married to Michael for 40+ years. They got married on June 22, 1979. During her initial 10 years of marriage, she lost her brother-in-law, father-in-law and mother-in-law. For a good number of years, the pair is not seen together in any event of photo session. Last the couple was seen shopping in Dublin, on 6th August, 2015. She along with her husband in June 2017 had stopped in downtown Ripon to visit Knuth's Brewing Co. They reside in Los Angeles and their daugther's names are Gillian Rooker and Alynne Rooker.

About her daughters

Margot Rooker's eldest daughter resides in Los Angeles, California. She also gave birth a daughter, making her mom a grandmother. Gillian, her youngest daughter is a chef and was born in LA, California. Gillian had attended Verdugo Hills High-School and completed her graduation from Santa Cruz-based California University. She took Earth Science as her subject. Gillian also joined Natural Gourmet Institute. Presently, she resides in Okazaki, Aichi.

About her husband's early life

Michael was born on 6th April, 1955. He pursued his studies from Wells High School. On completing his high school, Chicago Park District offered him a post as an athletic instructor. He had learned Japanese martial art 'Aikido'. Students in this form of martial art learned to use passive thinking principles and center it in their day-to-day lives. He also learned Kyokushin Karate style and earned a black belt. He graduated from Wright Junior College earning an associate degree in a particular field he prefers. Later, he got theatre degree from Goodman Drama School. He also pursued studies at DePaul University's Theatre School. For a total of 10 years, he studied martial arts while pursuing academic qualifications.

Michael's career

Margot's husband joined the film industry in the 80s debuting in the 1984 movie 'Streets of Fire'. He acted in several Hollywood movies. But it was with Guardians of-the Galaxy that he gained popularity. For more details visit: https://biographypost.org/the-untold-truth-about-michael-rookers-wife-margot-rooker/